Officials to Keep Her Out

ELEVEN PERSONS HURT WHEN TRAIN HITS AN ENGINE

Washington Masons in Wreck
After Attending Installation
Services in Virginia.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., Feb. 28.—Eleven persons were injured in a collision last night between a Southern Railway freight engine and an electric train on the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway. The electric train, bound for Washington with a number of Masons and their wives who had come here to attend the installation services of a local lodge, had reached Patrick and Cannon streets, where the Southern track crosses the electric line, when the collision occurred. The electric line car was practically demolished, and one of the passengers, a woman, was seriously injured. The others were able to proceed to Washington two hours later, when the debris had been cleared away and traffic resumed.

PIRATED PIE WAGON FROM TOMBS DOOR

Youths Mount Loaded Ark of Joy and Vanish from Ken of Police.

A gorgeously decorated ark of joy, jammed with pies, drew up to the curb in front of the Centre street entrance to the Tombs at 9 o'clock. The driver unlocked the door at the rear, pulled out a mound of pies and vanished with them through the gloomy portals. The wagon contained the daily supply of pie for the city prison canteen. Two hard-faced young men, standing close to the door, sheltered from the wind, saw the driver disappear and noted that the wagon was unattended. A passion for pie seized them. Without a thought for the consequences, they climbed upon the wagon, whipped up the horse and drove away. When the driver returned, there was no sign of his pie wagon. Bystanders said it had gone south and turned east into Duane street. The theft of the horse, wagon and pies was promptly reported to Police Headquarters, and trained sleuths were sent out to look for a trail of pie crusts. Unfortunately, there were no meat pies in the wagon. Consequently the dog police were useless in this pie-stealing emergency.
